XMAS SHOPPING WILL BEGIN IN FULL BLAST SATURDAY

All of the Maysville Stores Announce Ready For Gift Seekers—Despite the Big War All Shops Contain Fine Assortment of All Kinds of Gifts.

Maysville merchants are expecting Christmas shopping to begin in earnest here Saturday. There has been some gift buying but it is expected that the shoppers will be out in full blast Saturday and that business will be brisk from now until Christmas eve.

The admonition to shop early seems to have become quite old and stale to the ears of the people but there is every reason that shoppers should be out early this year. Not only will it be much easier on the merchants and their sales forces but the shopper will find if he waits too long to do his shopping this year that he will have to take what is left and will have little choice.

Despite the war the Maysville business men have been able to purchase a good supply of all kinds of Christmas goods, however when the present supply is exhausted they will have considerable trouble in replenishing their stocks in time for Christmas as although the armistice has been signed, the railroads are still congested and freight and express shipments are still off schedule.

Maysville merchants offer the largest and best collection of Christmas merchandise that can be found East of Cincinnati or West of Portsmouth and our neighbors are invited here to do their Christmas shopping. They will not only find the merchandise here but they will find accommodating sales people and every convenience.

WILL KEEP IN TOUCH WITH OHIO ROAD IMPROVEMENT

The Maysville Chamber of Commerce expects to keep in close touch with the proposed new road improvement in Southern Ohio and while there is being a great effort made to divert the proposed improvement of the Maysville and Zanesville pike leading to Maysville to another pike which strikes the Ohio river at Manchester it is more than likely that the state authorities will decide to spend their road money on the old through pike.

BOYS' BAND PLANS TO BE COMPLETED NEXT WEEK

Boys Will Begin Rehearsals Within a Short Time and Band May Give First Concert Within Ten Weeks.

A great deal of interest has been taken in Maysville in the proposed establishment of a Boys' Band here and all will wait eagerly for the first public concert, which Prof. Young, the band leader, says will be in about ten weeks.

There will be a meeting of all of the boys desiring to be members of the organization at the High School building on next Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at which time Prof. Young will explain all the details pertaining to the establishment of the band. Another meeting will be held on Tuesday evening at which time the boys and parents will be asked to meet Prof. Young and a committee of business men, looking toward concluding preliminary arrangements so that rehearsals can take place as soon as possible.

One of the big problems will be selecting the boys for most every school boy in Maysville is now very much excited over becoming a member of the Maysville Band.

MANY TICKETS ISSUED FOR BIG DEMONSTRATION

J. T. Kackley & Company have issued a large number of tickets for the big demonstration which will be held at the Christian Church this evening. This will be one of the most unique demonstrations ever held in Maysville and will be especially attractive to music lovers.

WOMEN'S CLUB CALLS OFF BIG MEETING

The Mason County Women's Club had planned a very interesting program for this afternoon in furtherance of the food conservation campaign inaugurated anew since the signing of the armistice but the meeting was called off late Friday.

DOG TAX LAW IS TO BE ENFORCED, SAYS COMMISSIONER

County Clerk Owens Receives Letter Explaining New Dog Tax Which Has Been Confusing.

The following letter from Commissioner of Agriculture Mat S. Cohen, to County Clerk J. J. Owens, will explain itself:

County Clerk, J. J. Owens.

Replying to yours of November 30th in which you ask in case a man should come to the office, between the 5th and 10th of January, and ask to have license issued him for his dog or dogs, whether or not you should issue or refuse to do so by closing your books as required by the Act on January 1st, beg to advise that the law states specifically and emphatically that all dogs must be licensed on or before January 1st, 1919, and after that date should any owner who has listed his dog, or who owns a dog ask to have same licensed, you should immediately swear a warrant for him for the violation of this act, or else notify the Sheriff with a written notice to the effect, in order that the Sheriff may proceed to carry out the provision of this Act.

I say to you frankly this law is put on the Statutes books to be enforced, and you may say to your people that it is going to be enforced regardless of whom the violator may be. If the Department can serve you further in this or any other matter only command and believe me.

Yours very truly,
MAT S. COHEN,
Commissioner of Agriculture

TO THE PUBLIC:

As the money collected on dogs goes now to the sheep fund (the old law being repealed) it is very important that every one owning dogs, please call at the County Clerk's Office and take out license on same. Should you know of any persons having dogs, upon which no license have been paid, and you wish to collect something for the sheep that have been killed, it is your duty as a citizen to report same to the Sheriff, for if these license are not collected, there will be no fund from which sheep claims are to be paid.

J. J. OWENS, Clerk.

CARTER GLASS CHOSEN SECRETARY OF TREASURY

Virginia Editor and Representative Named For and Accepts McAdoo's Seat in Wilson Cabinet.

Washington, December 6.—Representative Carter Glass, of Virginia, was nominated yesterday by President Wilson to be Secretary of the Treasury.

Mr. Glass will go into office on December 16 under an agreement with Secretary McAdoo, whose resignation was accepted by the President, to take effect upon the appointment and qualification of his successor.

The nomination, which had been prepared by President Wilson before his departure Tuesday night, was sent in from the White House upon word from Mr. Glass that he would accept the post. Mr. Glass's resignation as a member of the House, to which he has just been re-elected after 18 years of service, will be submitted in a few days.

No changes in policy of the Treasury are to be expected at present, if at all, Mr. Glass said yesterday. His relations with Secretary McAdoo have been very close and he is familiar generally with Treasury affairs, although he has been absent on a trip to Europe for several weeks.

ANOTHER CHRISTMAS CLUB PAYS NEXT MONDAY

The First-Standard Bank announces that they will issue checks to the members of their Christmas Club on next Monday. Other clubs will pay within the next few days and a large amount of money will be in the hands of the people for Christmas gifts. This year the clubs came in quite handy and especially to the farmers who were members and who could not sell any part of their tobacco crop until after the holiday season had passed.

"FLU" BREAKS OUT IN DAM NEIGHBORHOOD

Physicians report that within the past few days the "flu" which heretofore has jumped over the dam neighborhood, is now breaking out there and that there are many new cases developing in that immediate neighborhood. All of the cases, however, seem to be a very light form.

BRITAIN DAY TO BE OBSERVED QUIETLY HERE

No Special Program To Be Given in Honor of Our Great Ally in Maysville But Flags Will Be Displayed.

Because of the influenza epidemic which still seems to have quite a hold on parts of the county, no special program has been arranged here for the celebration of Britain Day Saturday—the day that has been set aside for honoring our great European ally whose fleet stood between America and the German hordes.

Although there will be no public demonstration it is urged by our government that flags of the British nation be displayed from stores and residences. All who have the British Jack in their homes are urged to hang it out along side Old Glory for the day.

Had health conditions in this community been more favorable it is more than likely that Mayor Russell and the county officials would have arranged some public demonstration but at a later date when conditions are again normal the city and county may have opportunity of doing honor to all our allies.

Remember, however, that today is Britain Day and that she should be in our thoughts.

NAVY AGAIN OPEN TO RE-ENLISTMENTS

United States Navy Again Opens Its Doors For Four Year Enlistments—Opportunity For Young Men To See the World.

The Navy is again open for enlistment for four years!

To the young man who is ambitious to see the world, to whom the adventure of traveling, the opportunity to learn a trade, appeals, here is a wonderful chance to do all that and be paid for it. The Navy has again opened all of its branches for four years enlistment as was announced by the main Recruiting Station for Kentucky at 412 South Fourth Street, Louisville, yesterday.

The official despatch from Washington states that men will be accepted in the Navy regardless of the fact that they are registered with a local draft board as no draft board will have anything more to do with any man who desires to enlist in the Navy.

Everyone who now enlists will be practically assured of seeing real service as with the millions of our boys in khaki in France who will have to be brought back, the food and supplies which we will have to send Europe, our Navy and Merchant Marine, which the Navy is gradually taking over, will be kept busy. Then again the coasts of Europe and this country will have to be patrolled and the sailors of the U. S. Navy will do quite a little traveling within the next few years.

Applicants who are interested should apply for full information to the Navy Recruiting Station, 12 South Fourth Street, Louisville, Ky., either by mail or in person.

DELIVERY BAN HAS NOT BEEN LIFTED, SAYS STRAUS

Ban on Delivery and Other Store Services Instead of Being Lifted Has Been Transferred.

The ban on delivery and other store services, which has been put in operation throughout the country during the last few months, instead of being lifted, as have many others, has been transferred from the National Council of Defense, and War Industries Board to the various State Councils of Defense, with recommendations that the various State Councils shall determine the needs of the State as to whether the ban shall be lifted or not.

Word has just been received by Eugene J. Straus, State Chairman, Commercial Economy Committee, Kentucky Council of Defense, and State Representative, Conservation Division, War Industries Board, from the War Industries Board, Washington, D. C., part of which reads as follows:

"We shall rely upon each State Council of Defense, in co-operation with local community labor boards, to work out such readjustments as local conditions demand in the administration of the plans already in effect for delivery economy," and in co-operation with the above Mr. Straus has just sent out letters to committees, and merchants throughout the State, part of which reads as follows:

"The Kentucky Council of Defense feels that the restrictions should be continued, but possibly in a modified form, but owing to the limited finances of the Council, recommends that the continuance of these restrictions be passed on to the various merchants local organizations, or to a State organization, composed of the individual merchant, which organizations could modify or change the restrictions to best meet local needs and adopt many other valuable features for the merchants protection, which features have not been in the National Campaign."

"The merchants all through the State are asked to file a report with Mr. Straus, at Louisville, showing the savings that have been made, both in man power and in dollars and cents while the following of the Conservation Recommendations have been in operation during the last few months." Every merchant and committeemen is asked to give the above his prompt attention and mail report at the earliest date.

SCHRAFF COMPROMISES; WILL NOT BE RETURNED

Man Held by Cincinnati Authorities For Maysville Police Released When Compromise Is Reached—Family In Serious Condition.

Although the local police had made application to Governor Stanley for a requisition on Governor Cox, of Ohio, for the return here of Alexander Schraff, under arrest in Cincinnati and wanted here on a grand larceny charge, they have withdrawn that request and Schraff has been given his liberty.

The local authorities received a communication from Georgetown, Ohio, lawyers, in which town Schraff lives, informing them that heretofore the man had a good reputation in his home community. They also stated that Schraff's entire family was ill with influenza and that some members were in a serious condition. They agreed to compromise the case by the return of the stolen articles and money and to this compromise the local authorities agreed after they learned that it would suit Mr. Samuel Middleman from whom the articles and money had been stolen.

After reaching this compromise yesterday Chief of Police Harry A. Ort notified the Cincinnati police to release Schraff and allow him to return to his family.

INFLUENZA CASES CONTINUE TO SHOW GREAT DECREASE

Churches on Next Sunday Will Hold All Services With All Restrictions Removed—Only 16 Cases Reported Thursday.

Reports reaching County Health Officer Locke's office continue to show quite a decrease in the number of new influenza cases in both the city and county and as has been the case for several days the larger percentage of the cases are still in the county.

According to the physicians' reports there were but 16 new cases developed in both city and county on Thursday which shows a decrease from the preceding day of 11 cases. Six of the 16 new cases reported Thursday were in the city and ten in the county.

In an interview given the Ledger this morning Dr. Locke said that all restrictions were removed as to the churches in the city for next Sunday and that Sunday School could be held as usual. He advised however, that all children under school age be left at home just at this time but stated that there was little or no danger in the children, of school age attending Sunday School.

Dr. Locke and the members of the City Board of Health feel much better about the situation in the city of Maysville than they have felt for some time and now feel certain that the epidemic is on the wane for good.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

THEASURES OF THE AGES

Since the Turk has held Palestine, its doors have been closed in more senses than one. Now, thanks to the glorious campaigns of General Allenby, one of the foremost heroes of the present war, these doors are open. The archaeologist will have his opportunity, so long denied, to unearth the treasures of ancient history buried in that wonderful land. We can only speculate as to what these treasures may be.

Exploration work in Palestine has been taboo since the sons of Mahomet controlled the destinies of the land. It is now certain that every obstacle will be removed that might retard the work of scientists.

Professor Petrie, one of the most famed archaeologists in the world, recently emphasized the importance of this work by replying to the question, "What can we hope to find in Palestine?" He said: "The whole history of humanity in the east from the four or five civilizations before the Jewish occupation."

The new styles call for the long hobble skirt. The many girls who defy the fashion and continue to wear the short ones needn't explain their rebellious conduct. We can see why and we don't blame them.—Houston Post.

WHAT THE BUREAU OF NATURALIZATION IS DOING

With the coming of peace, the Bureau of Naturalization of the U. S. Department of Labor is charged with continuing the work which the war has shown to have been already well established, of cementing the many races and peoples represented in this country's population into one homogenous nation. The achievement of national unity, involving the assimilation of 17,500,000 alien born residents of this country, is the peculiar task of this bureau, which is beginning this season the greatest campaign in its history to effect its aims.

Realization of the ideal of America as the melting pot in which the peoples of many lands are fused into a new and characteristic national type is the purpose of this bureau's Americanization work. Last May, Congress passed a law to Americanize every man and woman of foreign birth in this country, and it chose the Bureau of Naturalization to have charge of the citizenship training which will be carried on through the public schools.

Foreigners are becoming citizens by hundreds of thousands every year, and the war has done much to promote interest in America among the aliens living here. There are still, however, many difficulties in the way of a successful accomplishment of the great plan to make every inhabitant of this country American in thought, word, and action.

For example, there are 500,000 foreigners in New York City who can not read, write, or speak English. Probably 100 languages and dialects are spoken here. There are between ten and twelve million persons in this country who owe allegiance to other nations. In no other country in the world is there so great a percentage of aliens.

The Bureau of Naturalization is more closely in touch with the foreign born than any other government organization. Through its naturalization examiners, it has gained acquaintance with about three million immigrants, and during the last four years the schools have begun their great work of instructing the millions of others in the essentials of American citizenship.

This great educational work is going on in nearly 2,000 communities, the home cities of millions of immigrants. Hundreds of thousands of these have taken out their first papers, and the bureau has prevailed upon the school authorities wherever these candidates live to open evening classes in which first-paper men and their wives may be taught what they ought to know about the American government.

The first thing taught is the English language—conversation, reading, and writing. Every foreigner is ambitious to be told that he speaks English like an American. The Government sends an urgent appeal to every applicant for citizenship, asking him to go to an evening class in the public schools of his city. It also furnishes free textbooks to these men and women, and will recognize the work of the public schools in a certificate of graduation, presented jointly by the Government and the schools to foreigners when they come into American citizenship.

Thus far, the surface has been barely scratched, for less than two per cent of the aliens in this country have applied for citizenship instruction. The Americanization of the other 98 per cent, is the almost herculean task the Bureau of Naturalization faces. The aid of every resident of the community must be enlisted in the work if it is to be effective.

Employers of aliens can aid in the work by having their workmen, particularly those who are deficient in their knowledge of English or of American institutions, enter the evening citizenship classes at once. Those who have foreign-born friends or acquaintances who are not thoroughly naturalized can see to it that they throw off the foreign influence by urging them, in a friendly manner, to enroll in one of the classes.

Our foreign-born soldiers, many of them have become naturalized since entering the Army—either in camps at home or on the fields of France—will have American homes to return to, if the Bureau's program is carried out properly here. The relatives and friends of these young men can have the meaning of Americanization brought home to them, just as the young men themselves discover it in the Army.

The doors of thousands of schools are open to the foreigner who sincerely wishes to become an American, and the teachers will receive him with a cordial welcome. The schools have already accomplished a great work in the naturalization program, but there is much more to be done. Many other schools will be opened in the near future, it is expected.

The Government, through its Bureau of Naturalization, and in cooperation with the public schools, is extending a helping hand to every alien who comes here. If they realize their opportunity, they will embrace it gladly. It is the duty of Americans to make sure that foreigners understand what is being done for them.

The courts are showing thorough appreciation of what the Bureau and the schools are doing, for they have in the last two years recommended that 75,000 aliens take the citizenship courses—more than the total number of aliens admitted to citizenship in three years of the last decade.

THE WHITE HOUSE, WASHINGTON

Conditions arising from the war have drawn great numbers of teachers from the public schools, colleges and universities. Unless their places can be supplied by others whose education and experience fit them for teaching, but who for one reason or another have recently withdrawn from school work, the children and youth of the entire country must suffer an irreparable loss.

This shortage of capable teachers, especially acute in some districts and in certain lines of education, is estimated by the Bureau of Education at 50,000 for the various schools and institutions of Higher Education in the United States. It is the patriotic duty of all who can temporarily return to the ranks of teaching, to offer their services and to notify the School Board Service Division of the Bureau of Education, Washington, D. C., of the offer.

Often wives of soldiers and others in government service could return to teaching in grades of school work in which they have had recent experience. Former teachers of chemistry, manual training and the like now engaged in other work not so vital to public needs, might again take up teaching for a time. Ministers and others who were once teachers might serve a neighboring high school on half time until war demands are relaxed.

School boards, city superintendents and other school authorities should seek out such persons and prevail upon those of especial fitness to come back into the profession at least temporarily.

'A WEEK'S VICTORY CELEBRATION'

When the announcement that the war was practically ended came over the cables, the directors of the International Live Stock Exposition, in view of the important part played by American live stock in saving civilization from militarism, decided to make the first week of December a period of Victory celebration.

Napoleon's epigram "that an army travels on its belly" is historical. Without the beef and the bacon sent by the United States to the Allies during the conflict period, militarism would still be swash-buckling up and down the highways and byways of the world. Beef and bacon were as essential as ammunition in the conflict just closing, and the United States proved efficient in furnishing both.

Increased military training is a problem for future solution, but that of the world's food supply warrants no conflict of opinion. During the war the live stock growers of the United States met and mastered an emergency. As the "International" is the very heart of that industry, a Victory celebration at Chicago is fitting both as to time and place.

Many factors entered into the winning of the war, but beef, pork and mutton were prime essentials. Now, more than ever, when Europe is confronted with famine, must this industry be recognized and by rallying to a timely celebration of their historic achievement, producers can most effectively give assertion of the indispensable part they have played.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful."

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui.

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. I decided I would try Cardui. By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well. If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial. NC-133

WHAT'S THE REASON?

Many Maysville People in Poor Health Without Knowing the Cause.

There are scores of people who drag out a miserable existence without realizing the cause of their suffering. Day after day they are racked with backache and headache; suffer from nervousness, dizziness, weakness, languor and depression. Perhaps the kidneys have fallen behind in their work of filtering the blood and that may be the root of the trouble. Look to your kidneys, assist them in their work—give them the help they need. You can use no more highly recommended remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills—endorsed by people all over the country and by your neighbors in Maysville.

Mrs. W. A. Schatzmann, 605 East Second Street, says: "From the benefit I have received from Doan's Kidney Pills, which I buy at Chanslor's Drug Store, I have every reason to recommend them. Whenever my kidneys have been irregular in action or I have suffered from weakness and lameness in the small of my back, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills. They have always proven sufficient to quickly cure and attack."

Mrs. Schatzmann is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mrs. Schatzmann uses—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. PATRIOTIC SONGS ABOUND IN FIELDS' BIG MINSTRELS

At Fields' Big Show Coming Here
Monday Will Have Patriotic Spirit
In Evidence All Through.

The influence of song as an inspiration to patriotism is as old as war, and war is as old as the world.

We have no record that the cave man celebrated his exploits with rude ballads, but when the hosts of Pharaoh were swallowed up in the Red Sea, Miriam sang and the chosen people exulted because Egyptian autonomy had been overthrown.

The red man, who held sway in this country before the white man, had his war songs and they voiced fierce challenge to his foes.

In barbaric, as in civilized times, music has played an important part in the world's wars and it is still potent to sway the human heart. Cymric valor was thrilled to glorious deeds in days of old by the soul-tiring "March of the Men of Harlech."

The pulse of France has throbbled with quickened rhythm to the strains of the Marseillaise. Liberty has no finer minstrelsy than finds expression in war songs.

Our country has its war songs, noble and inspiring, The Star-Spangled Banner and the Battle Hymn of the Republic. The Star-Spangled Banner in times of war stirs the soul like the unfurling of a banner. The Battle Hymn is like unto the irresistible onset of a mighty army.

The value of songs in war time cannot be over-estimated. Songs serve to awaken the souls of the people to the exalted height demanded by love of country. It deepens their devotion to the cause which calls men to the colors.

The songs of a country are the index to its peoples. Who would think of Bonnie Scotland, that the songs of the land of cakes did not come into mind.

America has a distinctive place in the song history of the world. The songs of the Southland will ever live and the minstrels who popularized them will ever hold a place in the affections of all.

Al G. Field has made a study of the folk-lore songs of this country. The classical compositions in many of our highest class musical organizations are in a measure being supplanted by more modern music. Mr. Field has always made the popular music of the day the basis of his minstrel productions. The universal popularity of the Al G. Field production is due in a great measure to the popularity of the musical program and the excellence of its singers.

The A. G. Field Greater Minstrels are at the Washington Opera House Monday, December 9.

LETTERS FROM OUR SOLDIERS

Mrs. R. Lyons is in receipt of the following letter from her brother, Private Herbert Young, who is now in France:

October 29, 1918.
Dear Sister: Your letter at hand and was sure glad to hear from you. Well sister I have been in this big drive for two months and I just came out of the line that is the reason I didn't write sooner.

And girlie I also got your cablegram. Say sister don't do anything like that again for if anything happened to me you would be notified from Washington. Sister when a man is in the line fighting he has no time for writing, so don't send any telegram. Sister I know you like to know what is the matter with me when I don't write, but that was the reason. Well I haven't got that paper yet. I don't know much to write about, only to tell you I came out of the line well and lucky. I have had good luck so far; been over the top five times and the only thing I ever got was a bad cold. I hope my luck keeps up. We had some fun going through the Hindenburg line. That was good of you having that letter printed. I showed that to all the boys and they thought it was great. Well sister I will make this letter short, I will write again tomorrow.

We are out for a rest now. I think we will be out for some time, for they are going to fill us up again before we go in the line again. Well sister don't be worried about me. I will close for this time hoping to hear from you soon.

Your loving brother,
HERBERT YOUNG,
Co. C, 106 Inf., A. E. F. via. N. Y.

Mrs. Vinla Kirk is in receipt of the following letter from her husband, Private Charles Kirk:

Somewhere in France, Nov. 1.
Dear Wife:
I thought while having a few moments time I would write you a few lines. This leaves me well and getting along fine and hope these few lines will find you and baby well.

How is everybody getting along with their crops? I suppose the other frost has killed everything around home by now. But in all my traveling over here everything is still green around through the country. They raise a great deal of garden truck here and there is one thing you see but very little corn here. It looks funny to see people cultivating land here; they cultivate it in small sections at a time. They do not waste anything at all. When they are cropping on one piece they are getting the other section in grass. The most of the land lays nice for tending. It is a great pleasure to see the way farming is carried on here. The people around where I have been are just as friendly as they can be and treat me as nice as you could be treated. All the buildings are put up so substantial, they look like they would last for thousands of years; the most of them are built of brick or stone. They are beautiful and are perfect pictures. I have saw things I have studied about and heard about, that I never thought I would ever see. If I can keep my health as well as I have had it my experience will be worth thousands of dollars to me. I suppose James likes the army all right. The army is just what you make it, if you make it a lazy, drabby life it will be miserable to you, but if you be a bright, onward soldier, and keep up with everything that goes on it will be a good life for this reason, his work will seem like play to him. But if he dreads everything he is in bad shape sure.

I suppose I will stop here and go to bed hoping this will find you well and enjoying the very best of life. I know I make lots of mistakes. As ever your husband.

PRIVATE CHAS. KIRK,
814 Co. A, Pioneer Inf.,
American Expeditionary Forces.

Mrs. Florence Dixie received a letter from her son, William, who is in France:

Bordeaux, France, Nov., 1918.

Dear Mother and Father:

I write you a few lines to let you know that I am well and hope you are the same. I wrote to you and father and you did not answer. I want to know what is the matter with you. Tell Rosa Green to write to me and Mr. Will Ward too. I am saving money every day. Did you get the bill for my Liberty Bond? I have bought a bond and it is worth $50. If you need any money get the bill and go to the bank get it. Send me a fruit cake for Xmas.

Your loving son,
WILLIAM.

MINSTREL WILL HAVE LARGE AUDIENCE

The announcement that the management of the Washington Opera House is going to give their patrons another opportunity of seeing Al G. Fields' great minstrel on next Monday night was met with rejoicing. People had become very hungry for a first class entertainment and a better one could not have been selected than Fields' Minstrels for it is probably more popular with local theater goers than any other show on the road.

All the gold coin in circulation would weigh about 900 tons.

SOME DISHES THAT ARE REAL GASTRONOMIC ADVENTURES

Sea urchin's eggs are used in Ceylon as we eat ray oysters here. The Mexicans use an variety of scorpion, after removing the sting, in a special sort of omelet, to which they add a peculiar sort of peppery flavor. A large variety of locusts and grasshoppers are dried, then cooked, by people in portions of India, Arabia and Syria. In India and Ceylon they also use a certain kind of harmless snake for a curry, and if unknown to the eater it passes for one of the eel family.

Swordfish, shark, octopus, devil or cuttlefish are highly appreciated by all the Latin races, as well as our own American Indians. Appreciation for snails is growing as we learn to cook them here as they do in France, where they have long been a favorite delicacy.

Chinese cooks have made us acquainted with birds' nests, which would be popular were they not so expensive. They are built by a sea swallow with a gelatinous substance taken from sea moss. They attach the nests to high cliffs where it is dangerous climbing to get them. They should be soaked, after washing in warm water, in cold water over night, then boiled in milk until they may be pierced with a broom splint. They are then added to a clear soup. One for each plate is customary, though half a one is sometimes served.

Alligator steaks and eggs are decidedly an acquired taste. The Indians are keen after them. Frogs steeped in lemon juice, breaded and fried are sold in various parts of the world. In America, however, only the legs are used. Abalone fish, a sort of mollusk, are dried and used largely by Chinese. They soak and boil them, much as the Italians do the periwinkle. The shells are beautiful and have many uses.

In Ohio the mud puppy is cooked like the terrapin by epicures.

The trepang or sea catapillar is used as a soup garnish in Asia. It is soaked over night, then the jelly-like mass is boiled for six hours, when it is cut up and added to the soup, with a glass of sherry.

Hell bender is the almost profane name of an edible lizard with a wicked disposition. It has four short, thick legs with pink toes, beady black eyes, is flat and has luxurious whiskers encircling the foot length body. The meat when cooked is like salmon. A similar lizard is eaten curried or baked in Ceylon.

Manatee fish—beef as it is called on account of its coarse flesh—is large as a sturgeon and totally blind. Scientists reason that the fish came from a subterranean lake or river and lives in the Manatee river because it is unable to find its way elsewhere. The meat is boiled, baked or smoked, then fried. Clawless Cuban lobsters are appearing frequently in our own markets, and though the meat is sweet, it is soft and does not yield in quantity as our own lobsters do.

"I belong to a 'Don't Worry' club." "Well, don't worry me then," said the business man briefly.

Alleviate Soldiers' Sacrifices With Wonders of New Surgery

The United States government is entering into an exceedingly vital part of its war program now that the war is practically over. Government officials and the American people are determined that the sacrifice paid by the soldiers and sailors shall be no greater, no more tragic, than necessary. Consequently, a complete rehabilitation program has been planned and is being put into effect. A large part of the Liberty Loan funds will be used for this work.

Until his discharge from the hospital all the medical and surgical treatment necessary to restore the wounded soldier to health is under the jurisdiction of the military or naval authorities. Following the hospital treatment, he is supplied with artificial limbs or whatever mechanical appliances are necessary to aid him in walking, using his arms, seeing or hearing.

The vocational training, the re-education, and the rehabilitation necessary to restore him to self-supporting activity, is under the Bureau of Education.

The above illustration shows a soldier who has been made capable of continuing his trade of mechanic by artificial arm appliances.

Will Sponsor Government Ships

Cleveland, O.—The United States Government offered to the counties of the country which first crossed the Liberty Loan quota line in the Fourth drive, the honor of naming U. S. ships. The six which won the award in this Fourth Federal District are Vinton, Franklin, Henry and Ashland in Ohio; McGreary in Kentucky, and Hancock in West Virginia. Mrs. Frank K. Martin of Columbus has been named by the Franklin county committee to sponsor its ship; Miss Myrtle Campbell of Pine Knot, Ky., by McGreary county; and Miss Dorothy Weir of Weirton, W. Va., for Hancock county. The others have not yet been chosen.

Thrift Still Needed To Aid Government

Intensive saving by the American people is being urged by government officials, even though the war is nominally over. There must be other Liberty Loans. Much work remains to be done which requires large funds. The soldiers must be brought home. The wounded must be cared for. Countless other steps in peace construction must be taken—and paid for.

The Federal Reserve Bulletin explains the need of doing this by individual saving in its latest issue, pointing out the unfavorable effect upon the financial situation if the banks are forced to provide too great a part of the bond-buying money.

VETERAN DIVISIONS TO REMAIN IN EUROPE

Rainbow Division Will Be One of Last to Return—Mason County and Southern Ohio Men in Outfit.

Washington, December 5.—Secretary Baker gave it as his personal opinion today that none of the veteran divisions of the American army in France will return home before peace formally is declared. He indicated that the tried fighting men would compose the bulk of the force to be kept in Europe for the present.

Heretofore the understanding has been that the Rainbow Division and two or three other famous units would be brought home soon, leaving their places to be filled by some of the new-comers.

Several of the divisions which have seen much hard fighting are assigned to the American army of occupation, which is marching into Germany. Army officers say that it was necessary to make up this army of tried troops, because there was no saying what eventualities might come to pass.

Recent dispatches from France have said that an American army of 1,250,000 was to remain in Europe for duty until after the proclamation of peace and some veteran divisions in addition to those now marching into Germany probably will be included in that force.

The old Manchester Company of Ohio State Guards of which many Brown and Adams county men are members and a part of the Second Kentucky regiment of which several Mason county men are members make up a part of the Rainbow Division.

LABORERS WANTED AT DAM

In another part of this issue appears an advertisement of Bates & Rogers Company, contractors at the dam just east of the city in which they are calling for laborers at 45 cents an hour. There is now absolutely no excuse for able bodied men loafing when they can receive such money. The contractors at the dam are anxious to take advantage of the good weather and accomplish as much as they possibly can before the bad winter weather stops them.

APPROACHING WEDDING IS ANNOUNCED

The wedding of Mr. Mark Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Allen, of the county, and Miss Lydia D. Greenlee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Greenlee, of West Third street, has been announced. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's parents on December 21st. The young couple will make their home at Lynch, Ky., where Mr. Allen is now employed.

ALLIES WILL OCCUPY BERLIN, SAYS REPORT

General Foch Will Lead Allied Forces When They March Into German Capital.

London, December 6.—Allied and American forces will temporarily occupy Berlin, exercising police supervision, according to the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung of Berlin, which says that an American wireless dispatch to this effect has been intercepted by the Germans. The newspaper says that Mannheim will be similarly occupied. The reason for this action on the part of the Allies is said to be a "regrettable incident during which a supervisor of a prisoners' camp shot three Frenchmen."

In well-informed circles here it is stated that Foch in person will lead the Allied forces into Berlin when the time comes.

Counter-revolution is flaming up throughout Germany with great rapidity, said a dispatch from Stockholm to the Post today. Rioting, accompanied by serious casualties, was reported from many towns and cities. German officers who served under former Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria are attempting to launch a counter-revolution in Bavaria.

NIGHT OPERATOR---ALL IN

Vinol Made Him Feel Better, Look Better, Sleep Better.

Springfield, Mass.—"I am a night operator—was all run-down, couldn't sleep, had no ambition—I had tried blood and nerve tonics without help—and thought I would try Vinol and I must say it has built me up so I feel better, look better and sleep better."

—Charles T. Harder.
The reason Vinol was so successful in Mr. Harder's case, is because it contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a weakened, run-down system, make rich, red blood and create strength.

25 YEARS FROM LIFE OF EACH FLU VICTIM IS LOSS

Estimate of Insurance Actuary Shows Great Cost of Influenza Epidemic to the Nation.

New York, December 6.—That the economic loss to the nation from the recent influenza epidemic amounted to "millions of the best years of his life," because the average age of those who died was under 30, was pointed out yesterday by Actuary Henry Moir, of New York, at the thrift conference which is being held in connection with the twelfth annual convention of the Association of Life Insurance Presidents.

Mr. Moir, who is President of the Actuarial Society, said a recent investigation of insured lives covering a period of 15 years' experience showed that those who had died as a result of the influenza epidemic should have lived on the average to be 55 and 60 years old under normal conditions. In speaking of this loss, he said that this young and vigorous human life, which would otherwise soon have been devoted to reconstruction problems now before the world, has been "stolen by this scourge." Mr. Moir used figures taken from official reports and contributed by representative life insurance companies to demonstrate that the average loss of years of life suffered on account of each one of the thousands of deaths from influenza has not been less than 25.

Mr. Moir warned that there is no assurance that the danger is past. "We learn," he said "that influenza is now revisiting Europe and this time there are indications that it may be more objectionable than the milder form of mid-summer. We should therefore take warning from this recurrence and observe watchful care to prevent further infection, since the disease has distinctly decreased and seems to be dying out in this country."

MISS EDITH SNAPP IS VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

Miss Edith Snapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Snapp, of Forest avenue, died at the home of her parents this morning at 5:30 after a two weeks' illness of pneumonia which developed into pneumonia only a few days ago.

Miss Snapp was 17 years of age and one of the most popular young ladies in the East end. She was of a lovable disposition and had many attractive traits of character.

The parents have the deep sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement. They have had their full share of trouble, every one of the six members of the family having been ill at the same time.

The funeral will be held Sunday morning from the home with service by W. H. Davenport. Burial in the Maysville cemetery.

MISS ELIZABETH WORMALD DIES IN NEWPORT

Miss Elizabeth Wormald, formerly of this city, died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Melvina Wormald at 609 East Third street, Newport, last night at 11 o'clock after an illness of eight days of asthma.

Miss Wormald was 38 years of age and was the second child of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wormald.

The body will arrive here at noon Monday over the C. & O. and be taken direct to the Maysville cemetery for burial.

STRUCK BY CANT HOOK AND BADLY INJURED

John Wilson, a member of a gang of men now collecting walnut logs in this section for the government, met with a rather serious accident at the C. & O. freight depot this morning. Wilson was helping to load logs onto a car when a cant hook slipped in the hands of a fellow workman slipped and struck Wilson in the face. He was unconscious for some time two bad gashes being cut on his forehead.

ENGLAND WILL DEMAND KAISER'S PUNISHMENT

Lloyd George Says Britain Will Demand Punishment for Wilhelm at Peace Conference.

London, December 6.—In the detailed re-statement of his policy, issued by Premier Lloyd George, calling for the trial and punishment of the men responsible for the war, however high their place, he pledged the entire influence of the British government at the peace conference, to see that justice was done.

In declaring for the expulsion and exclusion of all enemy aliens from British soil, the Premier pointed out that a considerable proportion of enemy residents in the United Kingdom during the war had abused British hospitality, and thus had forfeited their claims to remain. He said:

"The Kaiser must be prosecuted. The war was a crime. Who doubts that? It was a frightful, terrible crime! It was a crime in the way in which it was planned and in the deliberate wantonness with which it was provoked. It also was a crime in the invasion of a helpless little state and in the wicked and most brutal treatment of that little state. Remember the treaty of neutrality, the scrap of paper!"

"Surely the war was a crime. The fact that all these iniquitous things were done in the name of war and under imperial edict of an autocrat does not change their nature. The war was a hideous, abominable crime, a crime which has sent millions of the best young men of Europe to death and mutilation and has plunged myriads of homes into desolation.

"Is no one responsible? Is no one to be called to account. Is there to be no punishment? Surely that is neither God's justice nor man's. The men responsible for this outrage on the human race must not be let off because their heads were crowned when they perpetrated the deed."

To those who have accounts and whose accounts are desirable. We will make payments due February 1, instead of January 1. P. J. MURPHY, Jeweler and Optician.

OUR COLORED CITIZENS

Miss Frances Strawder, one of the city's most estimable young women and Mr. Charley B. Owens of Fleming county were quietly married Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burk Lewis in East Fifth street. Rev. Jackson officiating.

Miss Strawder has taught in the city schools here about ten years and is very prominent in church circles. The groom is one of Fleming county's most substantial farmers. We wish for them a long and happy life.
